Go someplace new this winter and try your hand at crabbing and clamming on Oregon's Adventure Coast

By Oregon's Adventure Coast February DL 2022 at 05:20 AM

Fresh crab or clams are the star of many an opulent dinner, and the great news is that Oregon's Adventure Coast offers ample opportunities to catch them yourself. While both activities can be done all year, crabbing is best in a month that has an "R," and months that end with "R" are the absolute best, shares Janice Langlinais, executive director of the Visitor and Convention Bureau on Oregon's Adventure Coast, which encompasses Coos Bay, North Bend and Charleston.

Event Shakers Details and What's Needed

What it is:

A social media post on both the @TheOregonian and @HereisOregon accounts across the various social media platforms. Your account will be tagged as a Paid Partner.

What we need from you:

- 3-6 high-quality action/stylized photos that capture the essence of your campaign.
- Any phrases, keywords, or information you want to include in the caption. Our content team will write the captions and have final approval to maintain our branded voice, but your team can approve the captions beforehand.
- The accounts you would like us to tag as a Paid Partner. Our social media team will contact you directly for Meta/Instagram tagging approval.
- The URL or UTM of where you would like customers to land when they click through (if you want to use a different click-through link than the digital ads).

Metrics and Optimizations

Monthly Reporting

Our team uses machine learning and experience to optimize your campaign. We review data across platforms, meet monthly to report on performance, and get your approval on changes.

Specifically, we will discuss the following:

- Campaign performance: We will track key metrics such as website traffic, leads generated, and sales closed.
- Optimizations: We will share the changes we have made to the campaign and how they have impacted performance.

- Recommendations: We will propose additional changes that we believe can improve performance.
- Your feedback: We want to hear from you about how the campaign is working for your business.

Thank you!
