

WHAT'S NEW in OREGON

Winter 2026

Photo: Oregon Adaptive Sports

From snow-dusted peaks to evergreen trails, Oregon is a prime destination for winter adventures. Glide through pristine forests on Nordic skis or snowshoes, or try snow camping in a cozy yurt under the stars. Along the coast, mountain bike forested trails or join a surf-and-yoga escape. Indoors, explore museums, savor Michelin-star chef dinners and Oregon's top wines, or experience Hood River's mocktail trail on a road trip with mountain views.

AWARD-WINNING WINE AND NON-ALCOHOLIC HOT SPOTS

Oregon's Willamette Valley uncorked major accolades in 2025. Forbes named Domaine Drouhin Oregon to its World's 50 Best Wineries list, while the annual World's 50 Best Vineyards recognized Brooks and Maysara. Adding to the region's momentum, Wine Spectator's Top 100 Wines of 2025 featured Cristom Vineyards, Lingua Franca, Penner-Ash Wine Cellars, Stoller Family Estate and Ken Wright Cellars.

Hood River is embracing consumer demand for alcohol-free experiences with a new "Mocktrail." Featured along the way is Draper Girls Country Farm, known for its non-alcoholic ciders. The mountain town is also elevating its zero-proof game with inventive mocktail menus at spots like Ferment Brewing Co. and Solstice Wood Fire Pizza. Look for kombucha from local faves like Blue Bus Cultured Foods and One Breath.

DESTINATION DINING

Celebrating five years of business, Portland's Cafe Rowan launched A Culinary Harmony, a chef series that runs through May. The program brings Michelin-starred and acclaimed chefs from across the country for two-night residencies. Each guest chef will collaborate with chef Spencer Ivankoe on menus with wine pairings from expert sommelier Ron Acierto.

Forage for native truffles with Black Tie Tours and First Nature during guided forays led by trained truffle dogs this February — recently proclaimed Oregon Truffle Month by the Oregon Legislature. Continue the celebration at the 20th Oregon Truffle Festival, where you can taste the newly designated Oregon black truffle and enjoy wine-paired truffle dinners and events.

In Central Oregon, pair culinary delights with outdoor adventure this winter and spring. Mt. Bachelor offers a flurry of ski classes and a series of new Moonlight Dinners — a feast at Pine Marten Lodge followed by the thrill of skiing under the stars. Wanderlust Tours hosts an enchanting Snowshoe & Fireside Dinner in the Deschutes National Forest with partner Luckey's Woodsman. Plan ahead for Forage to Table, a four-course feast set for late spring.

Wanderlust Tour's Forage to Table

SNOWY ADVENTURES

Embrace winter magic on snowy adventures. Go stargazing after snowmobiling to your remote yurt with Eagle Cap Mountain Guides. Based in Eastern Oregon, this outfitter hosts catered overnight stays in the beautiful Western Wallowas. Enjoy a peaceful alpine retreat with Nordic skiing, snowshoeing and sauna time.

Snow bunnies, get ready to hit the slopes. Mt. Ashland debuted Bumblebee, its first new ski trail in four decades, perfect for developing skiers looking to level up. The resort also rolled out a Lower Lift Day Ticket, making mountain fun more affordable for families and newer skiers. See more affordable, all-inclusive ski lessons here at resorts across the state.

NEW MUSEUMS AND CREATIVE PLAY

Portland's new Northwest Museum of Cartoon Arts offers cool comics, workshops and author talks. In Salem the Gilbert House Children's Museum opened a Science Lab, where kids explore STEM learning through creative play. Coming in spring, the Crown Point Country Historical Society opens in Corbett, highlighting early settlers and Indigenous tribes of the Columbia River Gorge.

NEW SKILLS FOR THE NEW YEAR

Embrace the new year in community with others. Join Sip, Savor, Explore Oregon for Seasonal Surf day trips pairing yoga and surfing. Start your morning with sun salutations in Portland, then head to the Coast to catch some afternoon waves. AdventurUs offers women's weekends, like a skiing and snowshoeing retreat in January at the luxe Silvies Valley Ranch in Eastern Oregon, and a June adventure camp in Bend. Or get crafty in Corvallis with Tarweed Folk School, where classes range from woodworking and fiber arts to basketry.

MOUNTAIN BIKING, RIVER RAFTING

Ready to roll? Add these trails to your 2026 bucket list. Near Pacific City, the Buzzard Butte Trail Network in the Siuslaw National Forest, will offer new downhill, cross-country and skills-park terrain. In the Tillamook State Forest, the Westside Trail Federation just opened Bat Country, a black-diamond downhill trail packed with steep features, jumps and catch-berms. In Grants Pass, Dollar Mountain is emerging as a top destination with 11 miles of new multi-use and mountain bike trails for all skill levels.

Wild about rivers? The Klamath River's revitalized waters are calling, and now is the time to book a rafting excursion. After a successful inaugural season, demand is growing for trips on the newly restored Klamath River. The historic removal of four dams reopened 45 miles of free-flowing river, with new multi-day adventures offered by Indigo Creek Outfitters, Noah's River Adventures or Momentum River Expeditions.

TRAVEL OREGON

MEDIA CONTACT

Allison Keeney, allison@traveloregon.com

Eagle Cap Mountain Adventures

Tarweed Folk School

Klamath River

